OVERPASS START IN JUNE

Work on the bridge structure of the Millers Road railway overpass will not commence until early June.

Altona Council has received advice from the Country Roads Board that work on the overpass has been held up owing to a deficiency in available funds.

In a recent letter to council, a board spokesman said it was expected that re-location of services would be fully completed by the end of May.

He said that once work on the bridge structure itself commenced, it was expected there would be no further delay, and continuance progress would be made.

He did not say when the project was likely to be completed.

The letter from the board spokesman was in reply to a letter from council complaining about the delay of work on the project.

"Council had been told the project would be completed by June this year," on councillor told the Star this week.

In his letter the board spokesman also explained that the road, which was functioning as a side track for the overpass, was, for the most of its length, the future western service road, with a temporary section of pavement to connect the service road across the railway.

Officer with "horse sense"

Nobody could say Altona's by-laws officer, Mr. T. Hansen, is not on the ball when it comes to parking infringements.

And if horses could talk this statement would be endorsed.

It happened in Pier Street last Saturday week, when Mr. Hansen observed that a horse tethered to a council litter bin was standing across two parking bays, preventing their use by shoppers.

Despite investigation, the council officer was unable to establish the whereabouts of the owner.

So, he promptly attached a warning notice to the horse's bridle.

The incident was recalled at the general purposes committee meeting of Altona Council last week.

STAR GAZE

Matron Smith resumed duties at Altona Hospital on Monday, after a two months' world tour.

Father Winters wore a $20 bow tie to the St. Paul's College Parents' and Friends' Dinner Dance at the Fiesta Ballroom, Footscray, last Saturday night.

The bow tie, made up of twenty single dollar notes, was raffled for school funds along with handkerchiefs, also made up of paper money. The dinner dance was described as a "swinging success".

The performance given by Altona City Band in Logan Reserve last Sunday afternoon was not the only entertainment for the afternoon.

The matinee was followed by an exhibition of prize fighting on the green opposite by "Rabbo" and Keith Sides.

They promise us a return bout soon, and you'll probably see them on Ringside.

Gary Howard has sold his trotter, but assures us it is still a very fast horse.

Star will soon feature story on popular local group, the Adam Set, following a number of requests from fans of the boys.

Mention must also be made of a certain super group which is really going to explode on the scene in a few months' time.

The group will feature original members of former Altona band, the Brown-Eyed Handsome Jam, as well as Jay-Birds, Julie and Jeanine.

Families take part in safety program

Petroleum Refineries (Australia) Pty. Ltd. is involving the families of its employees in its 1972 safety programme.

Under the programme, a different topic of safety is chosen each month.

In March the emphasis was on home safety, and to include the families of all employees a magazine called Australian Family Safety, published by the National Safety Council, was posted to the homes of all employees.

In April, the subject will be eye protection.

As part of the programme a poster competition for various age groups of children of employees will be conducted throughout the month.

Cash prizes will be awarded weekly, in addition to final prizes at the end of the month.

These efforts, says the refinery, are showing good results, and the company is now aiming to reach the golden target of 365 days without lost-time injury at the end of this month.

Val's Column

Hello Girls, — Many questions are asked about hair colors. What can I do to get rid of this red look? How can I lighten my hair without a bleach? Firstly, understand your own hair.

Your hair color is determined by three pigments — black, red and yellow. A black-haired girl has nearly all black, a redhead has mainly red — and a blonde, well — then there is the greatest percentage of us — a mixture of color.

If we know we have a lot of red pigment in under that dark or light brown — then we will get a much warmer result from a change in hair color than sister Sue. Unless we want to look very "warm", we must look to the "ash" reamed colors. You won't become dull and ashen — but this "ash" content will keep you to a normal, plain color.

For those of us with a dull drab hair color, we need warmth — golden colorings.

Other than Decore Shampoo Oil Color, Steiner Color Classic and Tintette — which are true tints, dyeing all hair the same color, we can achieve slightly lighter colors — up to five times lighter in some products. Or lighteners — from one shade to an extremely pale off-white blonde.

Steiner can give you a Touch of Pale — by this I mean if you were a redhead — and wish to be one shade paler red, or a fading redhead, you can accomplish new sparkle in your hair with a "Touch Of" by Steiner.

Do you want a Touch of Blonde, Touch of Ash — no need to fear, Steiner.

Need something special for this holiday weekend? Shampoo in an exciting new temporary color with Glo Ahead.

Or if you are a little timid, or use a setting lotion anyway — why not use a color one. Look in on Steiners new water rinse color setting lotions. Especially are light colored heads — yours can have a temporary change, by Steiner, it can.

By the way, we are still at 76 Pier Street. We are really getting our new look now. We are still apologising for dust, noise and inconvenience — but it will all be over soon. Call and look us over.

Bye.

Bill Ross of the 'Natural Thing' says:

School sports in jeopardy

It is no secret today that the future of organised sport in schools is in grave jeopardy.

Aside from the purely physical difficulties of a critical shortage of teachers, equipment and arenas, there is the opposition of a few influential educational progressives.

These individuals feel that competition is fundamentally evil and that any activities including schoolwork, which lead children into striving to do better than the other child, should be eliminated.

While many of these people are genuine, they tend to become over involved with purely philosophical issues.

By doing this they neglect the basic physiological needs of the people who really count in this matter — the teenagers themselves.

Consequently it is the teenager who will suffer.

Adolescence is a time when there is a great need for locomotor activity.

Young people love speed, movement, a chance to pit their new found strength against some meaningful challenge.

If we do not provide the healthy channel of sport for such energy, we cannot as a community criticise vandalism.

We cannot fight nature.

If we bottle up the energy of young people by abolishing sport, it is inevitable that they will find less desirable modes of behavior.

Perhaps it would be possible to satisfy all concerned by retaining sport but restricting it.

Alongside established competitive sports, a variety of non-competitive sports could be introduced.

Sports like canoeing, sailing, kayaking, skating and golf are a few which would not place undue stress on winning.

Co-ordinating such sports would not be simple, but clubs and sporting bodies in the area could be of valuable assistance to schools in this field.

Their help could take the form of incentive discounts, information and personal instruction.

As a group we can create a socially healthier community by concerning ourselves with this problem.

How about it?

ALTONA NORTH PUPILS GET PAT ON BACK

"Your boys were one of the best groups we have ever had," the operator of a health and fitness centre has told Altona North High School principal, Mr. R. McInnes.

The praise is in a letter from Mr. Alan Rose, of the city-based Alan Rose Health and Fitness Centre, commending the boys and teachers at a recent health camp.

Mr. McInnes said criticism in some form or other of the western suburbs was heard all too frequently.

"It may tend to boost the morale of a few people," he said.

Mr. Rose wrote that the Altona North boys and staff members conducted themselves in an excellent manner during the camp.

"Your boys were one of the best groups we have ever had," Mr. Rose wrote.

"We would also seek that you convey our sincere thanks to the three staff members — Mr. Snow, Mr. Richardson and Mr. Tootel — for their outstanding contributions to the camp programme and their superb efforts in giving of themselves for the sake of the boys.

"As your school is now held in very high esteem by our camp, we would be pleased to accept any future camp bookings you may desire," Mr. Rose added.

Beta Sigma Phi — organiser of the annual art show at Williamstown — has suggested that people going away for Easter should take their paints and brushes.

They make the suggestion so painters will have the chance to show their works at the art show — eighth in succession — to be held from April 15 to 17.

Sir William Dargie will officially open the show at Williamstown Town Hall.

Each year, as the show becomes better known, more interest is being shown by both district people and those from afar.

A Beta Sigma Phi member said at the weekend the aim of the art show was to encourage artists and that the Easter break would provide a chance for people to capture with brushes what they saw.

Information and entry forms can be obtained by calling 397 6443.

Proceeds this year will go to the Royal District Nursing Service.

Undesirables use reserve

Altona's City Engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, has been asked to take steps to prevent the use of Crofts Reserve, after hours, by undesirables.

At the recent meeting of Altona Council, Cr. Les Crofts said he was concerned over reports that the area had been frequented late at night by people in cars.

He requested that the City Engineer attend to the matter.

STABBED

A 16-year-old youth was stabbed during a fight at Altona North, involving five youths and two men. The youth, Saffet Jekofski of Marigold Avenue, was admitted to Footscray Hospital with a stab wound to his stomach.

KICKED OUT OF HOME ... AND INTO COURT

By a Mail Court Roundsman

Pavlo Kapitan of Bean Street, Altona North, returned home last week to find his furniture being carried to the footpath outside.

An officer of the Supreme Court told him he was being evicted and when Kapitan did not get off the property, police were called.

CHARGED

The next day he appeared in Footscray Court and pleaded not guilty to charges of trespassing and using indecent language.

An officer of the Supreme Court told Mr. Miller S.M. he evicted Kapitan after being instructed to do this.

He said when he arrived at Bean Street, Kapitan was not present but came soon after.

Kapitan was having the bailiff's comments translated to him by an interpreter.

The bailiff said Kapitan's belongings were removed from the house and deposited on the street.

But he said Kapitan refused to leave the property.

The incident began at about 10 a.m. and Kapitan was still on the property at about 2 p.m. when the owner arrived.

No trespass

At that stage, Kapitan had entered the garden and used indecent language to the owner and in front of several people present, among them some women.

Mr. Miller said he felt there was no case to answer on the charge of trespass.

He said the times Kapitan was on the premises were during the transaction of attaining and handing over possession and not afterwards.

'The street'

He said if the transaction was still in progress, Kapitan would have lawful excuse to be there, and

Wiltona Hostel gives migrants a new deal

Nissen huts give way to the mod. cons.

• The new look
Wiltona Migrant
Hostel — a home
away from home.

When Australia first brought its migrant plan into operation, new arrivals had good reason to complain.

They were often stuck in hostels comprising old Nissen huts for two or three years.

And the Australian native wasn't exactly the friendliest creature.

However time and money heal all things.

And your regular Aussie is getting more and more used to having "them foreigners" around.

They are even realising that migrants are quite vital to the economy.

A local scene which has made a quite remarkable transition from desolate to palatable during the past five years is the Wiltona Migrant Hostel.

Gone are the morale-deflating Nissen huts.

They have been replaced by blocks of modern, clean and private flats.

Gone are the treks to the toilets and the queues and the wet and the rain.

Bathroom

For each unit has its own bathroom facilities.

And contrary to popular belief migrants no longer stay in hostels for two or three years.

Despite more pleasant surroundings the normal stay now would be nearer two or three months.

Manager at Wiltona is Paul Bayetto.

Mr. Bayetto, 52, with wife Gwen and children Paul, Peter and Jackie, first fell in love with Australia when the Royal Navy sailed into Sydney in 1937.

And as the jingle says: "he came back."

First of all there were 11 years in New Guinea doing experimental work with anything from copra to monkey nuts and rice.

Vandalism

Then back to Australia in 1959 when an advertisement in the local paper attracted him to Commonwealth Hostels Ltd.

He has worked in hostels in Sydney, South Australia, the Northern Territory and 12 months ago he came to Wiltona.

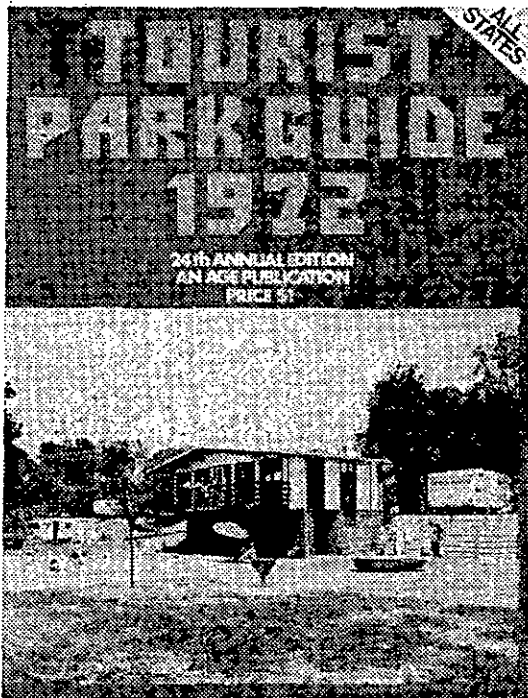

He says that one of the main things he has noticed since the advent of the new hostel buildings has been the lack of vandalism.

"The migrants take a pride in their quarters," he says. "What can you expect in a Nissen hut?"

He says the migrant's greatest problem is language and therefore lack of communication.

Going away for Easter?

The northern Europeans settle in most easily because of similar cultural and social backgrounds.

On questions about Australia's white immigration policy there was none of the usual balking and finger fidgeting.

"It is important," he said, "to have migrants who will fit in and assimilate — people who have cultural, educational and social backgrounds which will fit in with the community."

"And I leave it at that."

LUXURY NEW FAIRLANE

BARKLY MOTOR SCHOOL
318 1285
AUTOMATIC?
NO WORRIES

Ford's new Australian - designed and built range of Fairlane sedans will be released throughout Australia early in April.

The first Fairlane was introduced a little over five years ago, in March 1967.

Offering a larger more elegant vehicle than the traditional Falcon sized car the Fairlane provided a unique blend of luxury, quietness and comfort, a spacious interior, and superior handling characteristics, at a price which represented excellent value for money.

Its success was immediate, and, despite the subsequent introduction of two direct competitors, Fairlane remains by far the biggest seller in its class.

The new model is sure to continue this success.

The new ZF Fairlane is distinctive and elegant in concept, with the comfort and safety of driver and passengers of prime concern in designing the all new top of the line models.

The ZF Fairlane is lower than its predecessor, and, while it maintains the same 116-inch wheelbase, track has been widened by more than one-and-a-half inches to provide better roadholding and stability.

Two models of the Fairlane are available — the Custom and the more luxurious Fairlane 500.

Announcing details of the range, Ford's managing director, Mr. Brian Inglis, said: "Fairlane has been a traditional best seller for Ford from the day it was introduced."

"With the distinctive appearance of the new ZF model and the many new and improved features which have been included we confidently expect Fairlane to take an even greater share of its market."

The Custom model has the 250 CID six-cylinder engine, tested and proven on the previous range, as standard coupled with a three-speed manual column mounted gear shift.

The Fairlane 500 comes equipped with the new 302 CID 2V Australian-made V8 engine and three-speed Cruisomatic column shift transmission. Optional engines for the Custom model are the new 302 CID V8 or the 260 horsepower 351 CID V8. The 351 CID engine is also optional with Fairlane 500.

Cruisomatic transmission, either column mounted or T-bar, is available for both models.

Big 11¼ ventilated power disc brakes are now standard on both models — Custom and 500.

The new Bishop variomatic power steering is standard with Fairlane 500 and optional with the Custom model. This new power steering system gives more positive "feel" in normal driving and provides extra power assist for easier parking.

Standard tyres on the Fairlane 500 are 7.35 x 14 BSW on 5 JJ safety wheels. 6.95 x 14 BSW are fitted on Custom models.

Eighteen new paint colors are available with a choice of six interior trim colors, and five optional vinyl roof colors.

Fairlane also offers a complete range of new and revised options to satisfy almost any individual taste. These include:

- Quarter-vent front windows.
- Variable ratio power steering (standard on the 500).
- Power windows.
- Front locking seat belt retractors.
- Sliding steel sun roof.
- Stereo radio-tape player with four speaker system.
- Select-air integrated air conditioning.
- Cloth seat trim.
- Sports console with armrest.
- Eleven transistor push-button radio.
- Electric clock (standard on the 500).
- Tinted side and rear windows.
- Hi-ride suspension.
- Limited slip differential (mandatory with 351-2V V8).
- Super-duty shock absorbers.
- Dual exhaust system (V8's only).

THANKSGIVING AT SUNDAY SERVICE

The annual harvest festival thanksgiving will be held on Sunday, March 9 at Williamstown Anglican Church.

Church tennis win to K'ville

Mesdames Joyce Hayes, Lillian Wilson and Ronnie Manning easily defeated their much younger opponents on Saturday, to take off the A grade Western Suburbs Protestant Churches' Association premiership for South Kingsville Baptists.

A family festival service will be held at 10 a.m. and as well as the Harvest Offerings, the children are asked to bring their Lenten Missionary offerings.

The gifts will help the work of the Mission of St. James and St. John in caring for children.

There will be no 11 a.m. service on this day. Other services will be Holy Communion at 8 a.m. and Evening Prayer at 7 p.m.

Methodist

The following services will be held in the Williamstown Methodist Church Circuit on Sunday, April 2.

ELECTRA STREET: 11 a.m. the Rev. L. J. Slee, 7 p.m. the Rev. L. J. Slee (Holy Communion).

JOHN STREET: 11 a.m. Mr. G. Bratby, 7 p.m. at Electra Street.

NEWPORT: 9.30 a.m.

Camera Corner

This column was devoted last week to hints on buying your camera.

Perhaps you are a bargain hunter. For the unwary there are many traps.

Many routine checks must be made once you decide which type of camera you would like to own.

LENS: Without a perfect lens, the camera is worthless. Check for scratch marks, burred slots around the lens (the former owner could have been a screw driver addict) and see if the action is smooth.

Take the camera out into the daylight and set it at Bulb or time, and hold the shutter open. Then look for blurry deposits and scratch marks.

FOCUS: Check each distance for clarity.

FILM LOADING: Look for burred screws, scratches on the cover plate, wearing of sprockets. Advance the film lever and watch the action of the blind.

OUTER CASING: Look again for scratches and general wear. It could have been dropped by its previous owner. If you are satisfied, ask for a strip of black and white film. Now practice shots and check that the winder functions correctly.

If it is sticky, hand the camera back and keep looking about. If you are not sure about something, discuss it with Camera Club Members before you part with your money.

THE CURTAIN RISES

The Easter Holidays will be over soon and people will be looking forward to the Opera Season, or some other interest.

One of these interests could be joining the Little Theatre Group.

When people pay their first visit to a theatre group they find everyone busy doing their own particular chores and they seem to have little time to spend with newcomers.

This is why its' important to have social and extra group activities.

Williamstown Little Theatre's vice-president has organised a play reading for Wednesday, April 5 at 8 p.m. at the theatre in 2-4 Albert Street, Williamstown.

The play to be read is The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie.

Those who aspire to act or just like to listen may come along.

By "Thisbe"

The leasurely atmosphere will give new members a chance to make friends who share common interests. Many new settlers in the district find it hard to meet people if they are busy during the day. A visit to the theatre could make all the difference to a lonely person.

Easter chance for Scouts to check learning

Scouts from the Hoadley District — which includes Footscray, Werribee, Sunshine, Altona and Williamstown areas — will have the opportunity at Easter to put into practice all they have learned over the years.

This is the time when the scouts "go bush", enjoy camping and hiking and in particular, take part in the Stradbroke Cup and Hoadley Hide competitions.

The Stradbroke Cup is a held in the goldmining area of Blackwood and is the 21st in the series.

This year almost 600 boys with 100 adult leaders will descend on the Hoadley area camp at Macedon.

Camping standards are expected to be extremely high, with each group of boys providing their own meals, cooked on open fires. When not involved in camping duties, the lads can take part in the activities course.

The Hoadley Hide is a vigorous hiking activity for which it is essential that all senior scouts (aged 15 to 18) are completely fit, prepared and equipped.

Each Hoadley Hide has a theme and based on this theme are stunts designed to test the boys' initiative, knowledge and determination.

This year's hide is being held in the goldmining area of Blackwood and is the 21st in the series.

This will mean additional celebrations and activities will include activities from all the 20 previous Hoadley Hides, some of themes of which were Operation Espionage, Alex in Blunderland, Rallye Monte Carlo and Operation Faucett. Compass work, mapping and first aid will be emphasised and the boys will keep a log of their four-day adventure.

Spastic relief increase in area

At an extraordinary general meeting of the Altona Spastic Relief Association, it has been decided to rename the organisation the Western Suburbs Spastic Relief Association.

The aims and constitution remain the same, namely to build a hostel for spastic children in Altona which will serve the entire district.

It is felt this new step will encourage a more widespread support for the cause.

Cleaners' warning

Don't spill fruit juice, beer, soft drinks or some types of liquor, on your clothes, if you want to avoid permanent brown stains, the Victorian Institute of Dry Cleaners has warned.

Although stains may not appear immediately, they will if heat is applied to the garment before the sugar is properly flushed out.

To be safe, wash the stain with water straight after spilling, and take the garment to the dry cleaners to restore that new look.

In your time — A GUIDE

TO LEISURE

By PETER VAUGHAN

In August 1971 a concert was held at Madison Square Garden, New York City for Bangla Desh, the strife-torn state formerly part of Pakistan.

The purpose of this concert as conceived by Ravi Shankar and George Harrison was to raise much needed funds to alleviate the acute suffering that was present in Bangla Desh as well as imparting a sense of awareness to western people of the agony taking place.

The concert itself raised some $243,418 which of its own is a phenomenal sum, but when you add to this the revenues to be gained from the record and film sales of the concert, one can say that the financial aim of the concert has been a huge success.

Whether or not the message of the concert was received and digested is another matter but one would surely hope so.

Apple records have now released a triple LP set of the concert plus booklet priced at $17.00 (The Concert for Bangla Desh, Apple STCX 3385, available at the Arcade Music Centre, Beasley Arcade, Werribee) and is worth every cent of it.

Where else could you hear on one set: George Harrison, Eric Clapton, Bob Dylan, Ringo Starr, Leon Russell, Ravi Shankar, Billy Preston, Badfinger and Laus

Woorman all getting it together for a complete musical happening?

With such a combination of who's who in the rock scene this record set becomes a collector's item of possibly the best music of its style in the last decade.

And each performance is not just a one song gig for Shankar, Dylan, Russell and Harrison each get at least a complete side to display their superb talents with the backing of Badfinger and the immortal Eric Clapton.

Which goes to make for a pretty exhilarating performance all round and one that has been captured totally on the album by the use of 44 separate microphones.

Whether one is listening to the exotic music of Shankar, Russell's orgasmic wailings, the biting lyrics of Dylan or the plaintive, lilting style of Harrison, one appreciates the fact that here before you are the best that modern music has to offer.

And when one hears George Harrison's pleading "Bangla Desh" you realise that there is commitments too for all musicians at this concert. appeared free of charge.

I can say no more than buy it, your money will help towards relief as well as giving you unbelievable value.

Warm and sunny weather drew more than 100 ladies to enjoy the barbecue chicken and salad luncheon prepared by Golden Poultry.

Afterwards, well-known musician, Miss Shirley Radford, delighted the audience with her demonstration of the virtuosity of the Lowery organ kindly provided by Brash Music House.

Request time proved very popular and stopped only when Miss Radford had to leave.

Two lucky prizes were presented during the afternoon. Miss Dorothy Harvey won the entrance prize, and Mrs. Mardi Stewart of Geelong won the Easter Egg.

Methodists make good progress

This season, Williamstown Methodist Football seniors will be playing in the Western Suburbs League as the Protestant Churches League has gone into recess through lack of teams.

New senior coach, Tom Russell, has made a good start and is training the boys well for the beginning of the season on April 15.

A good practice match was played against Spotswood on Saturday and a further one has been arranged for April 8 against Williamstown CYMS.

The club's four teams are open age, under-16, under-14 and under-12. They are training at the Fearon Reserve on Monday and Wednesday nights.

Any new players will be made welcome.

SEAGULLS PICK UP AFTER SLOW START

There were no games that were shams and nothing was given away, when Williamstown's FVA teams met Yarraville at the weekend, in the first full-scale practice matches.

Senior, reserve and thirds teams were pitted against the neighboring sides and all acquitted themselves well.

In the main game, on Sunday, the Seagulls were a little slow in starting.

Led by Max Papley looking fit, the Gull forwards peppered away at goal, but Yarraville's McLaren and Martin kept the game up to the Gulls.

Mulligan in the forward pocket and John Fanning were damaging.

At the first change Yarraville were a point in front, but that was the last time they had command of the game.

Mick Mulligan was a menace to the Yarraville backs in the second term and his three goals put the Gulls up 21 points at the interval. Max Papley playing heady football and David Collins (Essendon) at centre-half forward goaled and Williamstown were doing as they liked.

Few passengers

Greg Boxall, at centre half back, was unpassable and in the third term Williamstown had few 'passengers' and at orange time they had a big lead of 46 points.

Max Papley came off at the last change and gave Jim Hynes and Graeme Buchanan runs.

Hynes came into the play and booted two goals and Buchanan was placed at full back. The last quarter saw the Gulls kicking

7.1 and a jaded Eagle side only scoring 3.5.

Final scores:

WILLIAMSTOWN: 22, 10-142.

YARRAVILLE: 11, 10-76.

Goals: Mulligan 8, Fanning 3, Collins 2, Egan 2, Hynes 2, Jackman 2, Papl 3y, Svonovich, Wallace.

Best players: It was a good all round effort but Greg Boxall in a new role on the back line was a most successful ball getter and he could settle down there.

John Fanning was good all day both on the ball and resting on the forward line. He is a welcome return player to Williamstown.

Mick Mulligan booted eight goals and looks set for a great season. Very elusive and combining well with his fellow forwards he will be a danger to many sides, he missed most of last season with a leg injury.

Ian Wallace played well for three quarters before being given a spell in the last term. Brian Harvey and Kevin Jackman showed up well in a good all round display.

Next Sunday the three Gulls sides go to Chirnside Park, Werribee to play three full scale official practice games.

It should be a good day Easter Sunday April 2. On April 9 Eltham come to Williamstown and in the final work out against Ovens-Murray side, Wangaratta Rovers on Sunday 16 April.

In the seconds game, scores were:

WILLIAMSTOWN 13.19 (97).

YARRAVILLE 4.8, (32).

Players to show out were Noel Anstey, Frank Diconi, David Dey, Phillip McTaggart, John James and Brian Kenney.

The thirds game was overwhelmingly won by Williamstown, scores being:

WILLIAMSTOWN 20.18, (138).

YARRAVILLE 4.8, (32).

Best players: Groves, Gubbins, Richards, Sinnott, Gratton and Walsh.

The Seagulls have signed Tad Joniac a 6 ft. 4 in. player from Footscray, and he will be wearing the Blue and Gold against the 'Bees' on Sunday.

To sum up the game, it was good for the Gulls, but what of Yarraville?

They will have to recruit big men if they expect to make the finals this year.

ALTONA HOME IN SOCCER

Altona City defeated Coburg 3 goals to 2, in the second round of the Docherty Cup.

But what a struggle they had.

Coburg put up a great fight and could well have won, having missed two golden opportunities in the final stages.

Altona's Hat Little scored the winning goal for the Maroons, only two minutes before time.

Jimmy Ackers, who is out with a knee injury, was badly missed on the large Coburg ground.

Altona took an early lead when Reid took a good pass from Iorahus, then sent a bullet-like shot past a helpless keeper.

A few chances were lost, when Micevski, Little and Iorahus blasted wide at close range.

Coburg also missed a "sitter" when the outside left sent a shot over the bar.

The second half saw Altona applying more pressure, with Reid just missing another goal.

However, five minutes later Reid has better luck and scored a fine goal, ably supported by Little.

At this stage the game appeared to be all Altona, but Coburg turned on a new life, scoring two goals to even the score, and the game livened up.

Coburg were looking dangerous, and at this stage the Altona defence appeared to lead a charmed life.

Reid missed again, from only one yard out.

Fortunately Altona had another chance a pass from Hynes was taken by Little and a winning goal resulted.

Although winning, the Altona boys were not over impressive, coach Harry Sutherland will have to take the lads back to scratch, and teach them how to play positions.

Next week is the start of the League, with Altona meeting last year's State League side Lions.

The Kims Reserve boys will be out to do some taming, and notch up some early points.

Could this be the year

SHOCK LOSS FOR ALTONA CITY

Altona City — after 34 games without loss — finally have to look for excuses for a failure.

The Vikings were downed by North Footscray in a practice match on Saturday.

They lost because too many players have not adapted themselves to a rigorous enough training schedule.

They lost because the opposition were out-marking them around the ground and on the forward line.

They lost because they were not prepared to be first to the ball at all times, they did not use effective handball at the appropriate times, and they did not back one another up.

They did not watch their opponents, particularly when on the defensive, and they did not contest enough.

Several players were down on last week's form and several more did not attend.

Player's haphazard approach in attending training could weigh heavily against them when the season starts.

You cannot condemn the team on this performance however, as there were a few bright spots, as well as some glaring weaknesses.

Coach Mal Tisdale has three weeks to iron these out and by this time they should be back in working order.

Ian Harrington, filling in at full back, played a great game. The versatility of this player is a distinct advantage to the team.

Geoff Ewen, as ruck rover and centre half-back, played brilliantly, highlighting his efforts with strong clearing dashes.

Del York, after a year's lay-off, has lost nothing of his former ability, asserting his authority in the packs and around the ground, particularly with strong marks on the back-line.

G. Wilson held sway in the centre and will be of great benefit as the season progresses.

Kevin Flett played a courageous game, showing a ton of ability.

Morrie Tisdale was ever reliable in the ruck, using his experience to great advantage.

Peter Thompson was the focal point for attack and only experience stopped him from capitalising on his ball-getting ability.

Mal Tisdale handled the ball with greater certainty and pushed forward repeatedly.

Steve Chatfield was very solid around the ground and up forward.

Final Scores: North Footscray 12.9-81, Altona City 8.6-54.

Goalkeepers: S. Chatfield 3, Mal Tisdale, P. Thompson, G. Wilson, K. Flett, A. Walters one each.

RESERVES

Once again the reserves faced up to taller and heavier opposition.

This factor did not deter them however as they bunched and bunched their way goalwards.

Facing a four goal deficit at three-quarter time, they fought out the game courageously to the final bell, making up the leeway to be within five points of victory at the end.

You could not praise these lads enough for their courage and spirit.

The determination showed in this game, must encourage coach Bill Devereaux into looking forward to a fruitful season. Paul Iiter, captain for the day, played a tremendous game as ruck-rover, and senior selection is a definite possibility.

John Males, at full-back, carried on from last week, proving a stumbling block to the forward moves of the opposition.

Steve Grainger roved tirelessly throughout the match.

Cec Martin found his niche in the centre, as did Ian Rielly at centre-half back.

Ken Churchill roved in his usual elusive manner and Wayne Marsh was very solid around the ground.

Final Scores: Nth. Footscray 9.10 (64), Altona City 9.5 (59).

Under 16s

The flag is in sight if you can take this game as any criterion.

The robust Altona team simply demolished the opposition in every facet of the game.

Forwards: Paone, Donnelly and Mildenhall notched 18 goals between them.

G. Rowe, in the centre, was a prolific kick-getter.

G. Sorrell, at full-back, was absolutely impassable.

Glen Knight and Danny Nichols dominated the ruck.

W. Jones, at half-forward flank, was a particularly penetrating player, and D. Hobbs roved impeccably.

Final Scores: Altona City 27.13 (175) North Footscray 0.3 (3).

Goal kickers: T. Paone 9, A. Donnelly 5, P. Mildenhall 4, W. Jones 2, D. Hobbs 2, Howard Backhouse, Parkin, Knight and G. Nicholls one each.

Three athletic titles for Altona boys

Two Altona boys won three titles in the Victorian Little Athletics Championships, at Olympic Park on Sunday.

They were Stephen F. Smith, of the Westona Club, and Anthony Clement, of Altona North Club.

Stephen won his under 10, 100 metre heat in 14.2 sec. and went on to win the final in 14.0 sec., and secure a gold medal.

He also won the under 10, 100 metre hurdles in 15.4 sec. and was placed second in the final of the under 10, 200 metres in 28.4 sec.

Anthony Clement won the final of the under 9 800 metres walk in 4 min. 20 sec.

His brother, Peter, won a bronze medal when placed third in the under 11, 800 metres walk with a time of 4 min. .08 sec.

This made a total of three gold medals, one silver, one bronze — a fine effort.

Two centre records were broken last Saturday, the final day of the titles.

Janine Lokaj of Altona North threw 6.71 metres in the under 10 shot put.

Janine was also runner-up to the champion girl for the centre.

Robin Osborne of Westona broke the second record by running 28.2 sec. in the under 13, 200 metres.

As a result of the Six Hour Relayathon run in October last year by the Altona Little Athletics the Children's Hospital will benefit by $159.

A total of $312.31 was raised and the balance will provide equipment for the centre.

Bowlers win, then lose

A four-man team from Altona Bowling Club broke through to the third round of the champion of champions competition at McKinnon last Sunday, before being knocked out by a Burwood team.

In the Altona team were Frank Nielson, Sid Carton, Len O'Donnell and Les Crofts.

They defeated a Moorabbin A1 grade team in the first round and a metropolitan A1 grade team in the second round.

Finally they went down fighting, to a Burwood A1 grade team which had lost two games on the day.

Altona's A3 side was one of 37 teams which competed in the Champion's Day competition.

TENNIS FLAG

Of the three tennis teams Altona had in the various sectional grand finals, boys section two were the only successful combination. However by no means were the other two teams, B special one and boys section one, disgraced.

Playing the style of game that is expected from players in the top senior grades, the section two boys, captained by Greg Scott were far too good for their opponents, Spotswood.

Greg and his partner Mark Gilson easily won their first set 7-1, likewise did Greg Clark and Neil Heyme.

These first two sets virtually put a sealer on the game and considering that of the four players who represented Altona only one had played tennis before this season started, their performance was remarkable.

The senior team, B special one, were beaten in one of the most entertaining games played in the Western Suburbs for some years.

Playing against Yarraville, on a perfect day for tennis, both sides had a large number of supporters present. This seemed to bring the best out of the players and not until the last point of the day was the result clear.

Captain Cyril Turner and Don Whitecross went on in the first set and after nearly half an hour went down 6-4. However Greta Thomas and June Crofts evened the score with a hard fought 6-4 win in the first ladies.

This pattern continued until the third men's and ladies' doubles when Don Whitecross and Fank Heyme and Sylvia Adcock partnered by June Crofts notched up wins which put Altona eight games up with the three mixed doubles to play.

However, Yarraville were not to be daunted and after the final three sets they had caught up to the locals in the number of games won.

This left Yarraville victors five sets to four in a match which thrilled all watching and one that will be talked about for a long time to come.

The third grand final Altona was represented in saw the number one section boys go down to a Kingsville team that was too good on the day.

Young Greg Whitecross partnered by captain John Bennett won one set and lost one. The other pair, Alan Findlay and Shane Johnston, were not so fortunate, losing both their sets.

However, as opposition were much older and more experienced, to go down by only a handful of games really pointed to a fine future for the Altona players.

CLUB NEWS

The Sunday morning coaching classes will resume on the first Sunday after Easter, and it is hoped that the clubs will have gained the assistance of a top line player by then.

Also the Sunday after Easter will be the last opportunity for both senior and junior players to put their names down for the coming winter competitions. All names are to be handed into Wayne Thomas (398 2092).

The winter competition is not restricted to those who merely represented the club in the summer events.

Mr. A. Frost representing the Royal Life Saving Society said it was good to see Altona still an active club as there were many clubs around the bay without members.

He said he hoped Altona would be able to again take part in the competitions on the beaches as they were able to do in the past.

Cr. Pat Burns spoke on the work of the club is doing for the City of Altona. Cr. Burns on behalf of the Mayor, declared the carnival open.

The president introduced Mr. Petterman from ICI who presented a boat to the club and said he was pleased that his company, situated in Yarraville, could be associated with Altona.

Mr. Ray Byrne responded by saying his mother was proud the members had named the boat after his father, for he knew the love he had for life saving and this would perpetuate his name with this work.
